FROM: Mrs. Scott, I guess, I had this paper all typed but so many things came up that didn't get it to the printer in time. I.S. I can't type either.

RELIEF SOCIETY There will be something special at RELIEF SOCIETY Tues. morning, Aug. 24th. Sister and Harry will demonstrate the art of Oriental cooking, one of her many talents. To top it off, we will be able to sample some of her delicious dishes for our husbands. Our homeward day also includes a family health lesson, a quilt to be tied, and a dinner for the little children. Come and enjoy the morning with us. Mrs. who are unable to attend during the day are invited to join the night A.S. at 8 p.m. in the A.S. room to hear Mr. Woolley (If Snowspace should come into this room, we would all rise, but if Jesus Christ would come in, we would all kneel. —Charles Leach)

TENNIS TOURNAMENT The first tennis tournament has progressed (almost) to the semi-final round. Those still in the running as of Aug. 16 are Men's Singles: Paul Taylor, Scott Robbins, Darrell McCarty, Jr., Bud Robbins, Bob Jepperson & Dick Maires. In the Men's Doubles, Paul Taylor-Harmon Anderson, Bud Robbins-Howard Hagen, Dick Maires-Craig Poole, Dave Barber-Dick Turley, Bob Jepperson-Darrell McCarty, Sr. have survived. Mixed Doubles semi-finalists are Dave & Carolyn Barber, Dick & Marilyn Leahy, Bud & Jalaine Robbins & Don & Betty Ulmer. Ladies Singles finalists are Dean Van Leeuwen-Suzanne Ulmer. In the Ladies Doubles category, one finalist team is Dean Van Leeuwen-Jane Maires. The winner of the Ladies Jepperson-Marilyn Leahy and Carolyn Barber-Jalaine Robbins match will determine the other finalist. Tentative date for the Tennis Awards Party is Tues. Aug. 31, at which time we hope some of the final matches can be played. Reserve the night or let Don Ulmer know if there is any serious conflict.
